

LICHTMOND

Precious Life

Day by day
Life is too fast
People getting lost in the past
Some take life for granted aimlessly

Watch the sunrise color the sky
A brand new day the love comes alive
We should all be strong
For whatever tomorrow brings

Look around
It's time to see
The truth inside our destiny
Take the chance before the chance is gone

Watch the moon rise
Changing the sky
On stars we wish
As night goes by
Don't regret a minute
Just keep the trust alive

Precious Life
Don't lose time
No matter to whom you pray

Precious Life
Don't complain
Just stand up and seize the day

Nothing lasts forever, nothing lasts forever,
Now the pain is gone, Precious Life
Nothing lasts forever, nothing lasts forever,
Now the pain is gone, Precious Life
